

About Us

Hirundo Wildlife Refuge is 2,460 acres of conserved woodlands and wetlands just West of Old Town, Maine dedicated to preserving nature while providing educational, and recreational opportunities to the public.

Hirundo offers environmental educational programs to schools and the public throughout the year and is dedicated to cultivating a love of nature in locals and fostering future generations of environmental stewards.

Our Mission

To enjoy, understand, and protect Hirundo's natural and cultural environment for the mutual well-being of our human and wildlife communities.

In Short: Enjoy, Learn, Protect.

Availability

WINTER, SPRING, & FALL SEASONS

Questions about the program?
Interested in bringing your group to Hirundo for a visit? Looking for programming on other topics?
Please reach out to us!

CONTACT US

hirundomaine.org

brianna@hirundomaine.org

PO Box 266
Orono, ME 04473

1107 West Old Town Road, Old Town
ME 04468

hirundo

TRAVELING NATURALIST

with

Hirundo Wildlife Refuge

*Connect with Nature
From Anywhere!*

CONNECT WITH NATURE THIS SEASON!

Hirundo naturalists are here to guide you on an exploration of the natural world around you. From wildlife adaptations to local conservation efforts - you can connect with nature from anywhere!

Visits Include

A Naturalist at your learning location!

Tailored Programming for your group

Educational Presentations

Interactive Elements or Crafts

Q & A Sessions

Season Topics

Choose your topic & we will adjust the visit to your groups ages & needs!

Winter Topics: (December - February)

- Wildlife in Winter: Strategies for Survival
- Reading the Winter Landscape: Animal Tracking
- Winter Ways:
- Wabanaki Winter Practices
- Bird in Winter: How Maine's Birds Survive the Cold

Spring Topics: (March - May)

- Bird Migration: Preparing for Summer
- Alewife Migration: Maine's Famous Fish Journey
- Vernal Pools & Amphibians: Life in Temporary Wetlands
- Phenology: Signs of Spring

Fall Topics: (September - November)

- Fall Wildlife Migration: How Nature Prepares for Winter
- Autumn Trees: Exploring Maine's Fall Foliage
- Bats: Connect with our Nocturnal Neighbors
- Archaeology: Discovering the local Past

PROGRAM OPTIONS

NUMBER OF SESSIONS

Single session

OR

Complete series to deepen your groups understanding and appreciation of the natural world!

LOCATION

We can visit YOUR learning space in person OR virtually!

*virtual sessions will only include an educational presentation & Q&A session

Pricing

Scholarships may be available!

In Person

$120/session (Youth) - up to 12 individuals

*Additional participants $8 each

$ 100/session (Adult)

$290 for all 3 seasonal programs (Youth)

$250 for all 3 seasonal programs (Adult)

Virtual

$80/session

$190 for all 3 seasonal programs (Youth)

$170 for all 3 seasonal programs (Adult)

