YOUR NATURE EXPERIENCE

Job Title: Summer Camp Counselor

Summary:

Hirundo Wildlife is seeking an enthusiastic and high-energy individual who wants to make a positive difference while sharing nature with the next generation. At Hirundo, you'll have the opportunity to be a creative leader while teaching, guiding and mentoring youth ages 6 to 12. Hirundo's camps run for four weeks during the months of July and August. Each week is a different theme, but all weeks include hiking, paddling, and exploring. On off weeks, camp staff will spend time at the refuge planning and preparing for the next week of camp. There may be other educational programming that can be developed and offered in addition to the camp weeks.

This is a paid position. Internship credit is available. Most educational institutions require prior approval before the start of an internship. Check with your institution to be sure this opportunity meets any requirements.

Responsibilities:

Development and implementation of activities.
Supervise youth and engage with them in day-to-day camp activities.
Provide a safe and fun environment for all campers.

Requirements:

Over the age of 18.
Have experience working with youth.
A love of nature.
